

Columbus

Discovers Tobacco.

The world's first
tobacco processing
plant is constructed in Seville, Spain.

Physician John Hill publishes
"Cautions against the Immoderate Use of Snuff" -- perhaps the first clinical study of tobacco effects. Hill warns snuff users they are vulnerable to cancers of the nose.

Pope Benedict XII
opens a tobacco
factory.

Cigar-smoking
President Grover
Cleveland is secretly

operated on for cancer
of the mouth.

New York City
passes Sullivan
Act, forbidding
women to smoke in public.

Kansas is the last
state to drop its
ban on cigarette
sales.

FTC complains that cigarette ads
touting physical benefits are deceptive.

Under the Master Settlement Agreement, seven tobacco companies agreed to change the way tobacco products are marketed and pay the states an estimated $206 billion.

American Legacy

Foundation

launches "truth"

campaign led by teens.